

Purim Musical:

Scene 1:

Naarators:

A very, very, long time ago
There once was a king that I know
His palace was in Shushan town
He always loved to wear his crown

All - Achashveirosh

He loved to dance and sing
He loved to eat and drink

Achashveirosh - Oh Queen Vashti, won't you come to my party?
Please, oh please, my queen

Vashti - No, thank you very kindly
I'm tired of dancing nicely

Achashveirosh - Who dares to disobey me - the king of the whole country?!

All - Achashveirosh

Vashti - I look so very dreadful
I have so very many pimples
I'll have to choose to refuse to come to the king's party

Haman - Off with her head
No more to be said
She must learn to obey the king
Because he rules over everything

You must bow down to me every single day

Mordechai - Nay, Nay, Nay is what I say

Scene 4:

Mordechai is teaching class

Mordechai - עוצו עצה ותפר - There have been many others before
That thought they were smart and strong
But it didn't take them very long
Before they fell - finished
And their plans fell stale
The same shall be done to Haman one day
When he sees that it doesn't pay
To start up with Klal Yisrael

Mordechai turns to boys -

Children dear, children dear - what have you learned today?
Perhaps it is something that will brighten my day?

Child 1 - Mordechai leader אל תירא Don't have fear משאת רשעים - from the wicked - Don't shed tears

Child 2 - עוצו עצה - their plans fall to dust
כי עמנו -ל - Because Hashem is with us!

Child 3 - ועד זקנה אני הוא - While we're young and old
Hashem always protects us from those cunning and bold

All children – Listen to our words – perhaps they'll fill you with cheer
With teshuva, Our tefilos Hashem will surely hear!

Oh Ester, Oh Ester Have you heard the news?

Haman is planning to kill all the Jews

Mordechai – To Achashveirosh you must go and tell him who you are
And of Haman's plan to kill the Jews on the thirteenth of Adar
