

SEDER STEP 2

Urchatz

ritual handwashing before eating a wetted vegetable

Purpose: Purify the hands by completely covering them with an unbroken stream of water, three times on each hand.

- 1) Holding the washing cup in your right hand, fill the cup with water.
- 2) Switch the cup to your left hand and pour water three times generously over your right hand.
(Water is a renewable resource and a sign of blessing! Don't be stingy!)
- 3) Now switch the cup back to your right hand and pour three times generously over your left hand – feel free to refill the washing cup as necessary.
- 4) That's it! There is no blessing this time. Dry your hands, have a seat and we'll soon continue on with the seder.

SEDER STEP 6

Rachtza

ritual handwashing before eating bread (in this case, matzah)

Purpose: Purify the hands by completely covering them with an unbroken stream of water, three times on each hand.

- 1) Holding the washing cup in your right hand, fill the cup with water.
- 2) Switch the cup to your left hand and pour water three times generously over your right hand. (Water is a sign of blessing and a renewable resource! Don't be stingy!)
- 3) Now switch the cup back to your right hand and pour three times generously over your left hand – feel free to refill the washing cup as necessary.
- 4) Rub your hands together, and then recite the following blessing:

בָּרוּךְ אַתָּה יי אֱלֹהֵינוּ מֶלֶךְ הָעוֹלָם
אֲשֶׁר קִדְּשָׁנוּ בְּמִצְוֹתָיו וְצִוָּנוּ עַל נְטִילַת יָדַיִם

Ba-ruch Ata Ado-noi Elo-heinu Melech Ha-olam
Asher Kid-ishanu Be-mitzvosav Vetzivanu Al Netilas Yadayim

Blessed are You, Lord our God, King of the universe, who has sanctified us with His commandments, and commanded us concerning the washing of the hands.

- 5) Dry your hands, and return to your seat. It is best not to speak until reciting the two blessings and tasting the matzah.

Licht Bentchen

candle lighting for the first and second nights of Pesach

Purpose: Sanctify the holiday upon its arrival by lighting a flame.

This mitzvah is traditionally performed by women unless only men are present.

Note: When lighting candles after the holiday has begun, use the designated "lighting candle" to transfer an existing flame; we do not light new fire (i.e. using a match) on the holiday.

- 1) Kindle your own holiday candle(s). One if you are single, two if you are married, and optionally an additional one for each of your children.
- 2) Gently encircle the flame three times with both hands, and bring your hands over your eyes.
- 3) Recite the following blessing:

ברוך אתה יי אלהינו מלך העולם
אשר קדשנו במצותיו וצונו להדליק נר של יום טוב

Ba-ruch Ata Ado-noi Elo-heinu Melech Ha-olam
Asher Kid-ishanu Be-mitzvosav Vetzivanu Lehadlik Ner Shel Yom Tov

Blessed are You, Lord our God, King of the universe, who has sanctified us with His commandments, and commanded us to kindle the holiday flame.

- 4) On the first night of Pesach, recite this second blessing as well:

ברוך אתה יי אלהינו מלך העולם שהחיינו וקיימנו והגיענו לזמן הזה

Ba-ruch Ata Ado-noi Elo-heinu Melech Ha-olam
Sheh-heche-yanu Ve-ki-manu Vehi-gi-yanu Lizman Hazeh

Blessed are You, Lord our God, King of the universe, who has given us life, sustained us, and enabled us to reach this occasion.

- 5) With your hands still covering your eyes, now is an especially auspicious time to ask G-d for any requests – for yourself, your family, or for the world at large.
- 6) Uncover your eyes and behold the holiday lights. Chag Sameach!

Licht Bentchen

candle lighting for the first night of Pesach when it falls on Friday night

Purpose: Sanctify the holiday upon its arrival by lighting a flame.

This mitzvah is traditionally performed by women unless only men are present.

Note: When lighting candles after the holiday has begun, use the designated "lighting candle" to transfer an existing flame; we do not light new fire (i.e. using a match) on the holiday.
