

Pin the Shofar on the Ram

By Torah Umesorah Educational Resource Center – Brooklyn, NY

Grade Level: Early Childhood

Description:

A lively classroom game, perfect for kinesthetic learners, to reinforce the fact that the shofar is a ram's horn. With this Rosh Hashanah themed version of pin the tail on the donkey, students can manipulate the shofar to put it in the correct place on the ram.

Goals/Objectives:

Students will identify the correct placement of the horn/shofar on the ram and will put the shofar in the designated spot on the ram's head.

Materials Needed:

- Large printout of a ram.
- Small printouts or die-cut shofars
- Blindfolds
- Tape

Material Preparation:

1. Print and laminate the ram and shofars.
2. Attach tape to each shofar and give each student a shofar.
3. Hang the ram on the wall.

Detailed Instructions – Classroom Use:

1. This game plays like pin the tail on the donkey.
2. Students take turns trying to tape the horn onto the ram.

© Torah Umesorah ERC

