Parents' Opening Prayer

G-d, for the gift of this child we give thanks, praying that we will continue to be worthy of the blessing and the responsibility of parenthood. May we show our gratitude to You by leading her in the way of righteousness.

May her life be enriched by the holiness of Jewish tradition, and may she always know the warmth and security of the love of family and friends as she does today.

Welcoming Baby

Please join in song as the baby is brought to mom.

“Havaynu Shalom Alaychem”

Dedicating Baby

Today we dedicate a new life to Israel. We give her the gift of tradition, a heritage of strength and scholarship, of humor and quiet heroism, of love of Torah and love of humanity. This child need never wonder who she is or where she belongs.

She is firmly anchored in time, and her life is forever bound up with the life of her people. May we always help her to remember this.

Prayer for baby: Psalm 100

A Psalm for the thank offering. Let all the earth sing in jubilation to the Lord. Serve the Lord with joy. Come before Him with exaltation. Know that the Lord is G-d. He has made us, and we are His. His people and the sheep of His pasture. Enter His gates with gratitude, His courtyards with praise; give thanks to Him, bless His name. For the Lord is good; His kindness is everlasting, and His faithfulness is for all generations.

Naming the baby

Mishebeyrach

May He who blessed our fathers, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, Moses and Aaron, David, and Solomon, bless the woman who has given birth:

Yonah Shoshana Bat ?

together with the daughter born to her in an auspicious time, and her name shall be called in Israel:

Dova Chana bat Yonah Shoshana

So that this child life can be the expression of the essence of its bearer, and carry on her grandmother's unique qualities

May they raise her to Torah, to marriage, and to good deeds; and let us say, amen.

Grandparents' Blessing

May the Lord make the woman who is coming into your house like Rachel and Leah, both of whom built up the house of Israel. (Ruth 4:11)

Bless our Granddaughter, who is receiving her Jewish name today. May the footprints of the name she is receiving, be a guiding light in her life's journey.

May you keep her loyal to our people and to the teachings of the Torah. May you guide her as she grows in health, strength, happiness, and wisdom. May her life be rich and rewarding.

May all her deeds bring pride to us, honor to the house of Israel, and glory to Your name.

Amen
