What is Yizkor?

Yizkor in Hebrew means “to remember.” Memory is transcendence.

We are creatures blessed with memory. We can transcend not only time, but space, and even the boundaries of the physical world.

With the memory of your parents, you break through the barrier between the physical world in which you dwell and the spiritual one to which they have ascended. As you connect to them through your memory of them here in this world, so do they connect to you by remembering you from their world.

We achieve this by living in the way which G-d wants, abiding by Torah and performing Mitzvot. There is a principle of Jewish life that we the living can bring merit to those who have passed. The formal expression of this merit is accomplished by prayer to G-d and by contributions to charity.

It is understandable, therefore, that when the yizkor was first introduced into the service, (probably during the massacres of the Crusaders and the early medieval pogroms-the earlier mention can be found in the 11th century Machzor Vitry) it was natural to be recited during the Day of Atonement. On that holiest day of the year, when Jews seek redemption from their sins, they seek atonement as well for members of the family who have passed on. “Forgive Your people, whom You have redeemed,” (Judges: ch. 2) The Sages explain: “Forgive Your people,” refers to the living; “whom You have redeemed,” refers to the dead.

One scholar even suggests that the term Yom Ha’Kippurim, the technical name for the Day of Atonement, is written in the plural, “atonements,” because on that day the Jew must seek atonement for both those who are present and those who sleep in the dust.

How to Yizkor?

When? Yizkor is recited after the morning Torah reading on Yom Kippur, on the last day of Passover and Shavuot, and on Shemini Atzeret. It is recited on these days even if they fall on Shabbat.

Where? Yizkor should be recited at synagogue. If one cannot possibly attend these services because of illness, or because there is no minyan, one may recite yizkor privately at home, although it is preferable to recite it at a public synagogue service.

Who? It is customary for those with both parents alive to leave the synagogue during the Yizkor service.

A mourner during the first year remains in the synagogue, but does not recite the Yizkor.

How? There are 4 Parts. The prefatory verses, followed by the “Yizkor” prayer in which the names are recited and the pledge to charity is made. “Kel Malei Rachamim” is then recited privately and the prayer of “Av Harachamim” is recited aloud.

The name should be recited in Hebrew, giving both the name of the deceased and the name of the deceased's father. The Sephardic tradition uses the mother's name instead of the father's, as, for example, Shmu'el ben Channah. The bereaved should learn and remember these names. If they are absolutely not ascertainable, the English names may be used.

In addition to reciting Yizkor for one's parents, one may recite Yizkor for any Jew who has passed on, including relatives and friends. When reciting Yizkor for more than one person, repeat the Yizkor paragraph each time, and substitute the words "Aböhi Mori" (my father), or "Imi Morösi" (my mother), with the appropriate title, as follows: For a Husband: "Ba-ali." Son: "B'ni." Brother: "Öchi." Uncle: "Dodi." Grandfather: "Z'kainy". Wife: "Ishti." Daughter: "Biti." Sister: "Achosi." Aunt: "Dodosi." Grandmother: "Z'ken-ti."

More: Some kindle a 24-hour Yizkor candle (before the holiday).

Do Jews Believe in an Afterlife?

There isn't anything after life, because life never ends. It just goes higher and higher. The soul is liberated from the body and returns closer to her source than ever before. The Torah assumes this in its language many times -- describing Abraham's death, for example, as going to rest with his fathers and similar phrases. The Talmud discusses the experiences of several people who made the trip there and back. Classic Jewish works such as Maavor Yabok describe the process of entering the higher world of life as a reflection of the soul's experiences while within the body: If the soul has become entrenched in material pleasures, she experiences the pain of ripping herself away from them so that she can experience the infinitely higher pleasure of basking in G-dly light. If she is soiled and injured by acts that sundered her from her true self while below, then she must be cleansed and healed.

On the other hand, the good deeds and wisdom she has gained on her mission below serve as a protection for her journey upwards. You want a real good spacesuit to make this trip.

The Zohar tells us that if it were not for the intercession of the pure souls above, our world could not endure for even a moment. Each of our lives is strongly impacted by the work of our ancestors in that other world. Grandma's still watching over you.

Why should souls basking in divine light above be at all concerned about what's happening in your mundane life below? Because, there they feel the truth that is so easy to overlook while down here: that this lowly, material world is the center-stage of G-d's purpose in creating all that exists.

That is also why, at the final resolution, all souls will return to physical bodies in this world.

Life Never Ends

Translation of a letter from the Rebbe, Rabbi Menachem M. Schneerson to a war widow in Israel

“And Jacob finished commanding his sons, and he gathered up his feet into the bed, and expired, and was gathered unto his people.” (Genesis 49:33)

The Torah does not state “he died,” and the sages declared, “Our father Jacob did not die... just as his children are alive, so is he alive.”

What forms the basis for the love and communion between two dear friends, between husband and wife or between children and their parent? Not the physical body, which is flesh and bones and guts, but the characteristics of the spirit, the true essence of man. It is only that man communicates with his fellow through the body and its limbs. Through his eyes, ears, hands, organs of speech, etc., man gives expression to his thoughts, feelings, and the characteristics of his spirit, and (obviously) it is they, not the bodily tools of expression, that constitute his true essence and being.

It follows that in the World of Truth (the spiritual hereafter) the soul of the departed has particularly great pleasure on seeing the members of his family recover from the tragedy, come to themselves, make every effort to set their lives in good order, and act as an inspiration and encouragement to others.

A bullet, a shell-fragment or a sickness can damage the body, but they cannot hurt or affect the soul. They can cause death, but death is only a separation between body and soul. The soul continues to live (eternally); it continues to have a connection with the family, especially with those who were especially dear and beloved. It shares in their distress, and rejoices at every joyous event in the family. It is only that the members of the family, living in this earthly world, cannot see the soul's reaction with their flesh-and-blood eyes, nor can they touch it or feel it with their hands—for the physical connection has been broken.

The soul of the departed derives especial satisfaction from seeing his children being reared in the proper Torah-spirit, free of any feelings of despair or depression, G-d forbid, but rather (as the traditional expression goes) ‘...to raise them to Torah, to matrimony and to good deeds.’

My First Yizkor

For the first 33 years of my life I was lucky enough to be expelled from the synagogue during yizkor services, when congregants pray for the souls of loved ones who have passed on and those with both parents alive leave the synagogue.

I never probed the reason for this custom. As a child, even as an adult, I was happy to be legally expelled from the synagogue, to catch a fresh breath of air and enjoy a schmooze with a fellow yizkor-evacuee. As children, it often meant that my friends and I could return an hour or two later without our fathers getting angry.

All of that changed this year for me. My father, a pioneer of the Yiddish press in America, died at 70. Two weeks later came the holiday of Shavuot, when we commemorate the giving of the Torah. It is also a day when synagogues throughout the world hold yizkor services. Synagogues are often noisy. The synagogue I attended for that holiday and yizkor service was small, but particularly diverse, opinionated and loud. One hundred people filled this humble, 60-year-old synagogue in Brooklyn, and at every pause in the prayers they were engaged in vibrant conversation and debate. As the congregation was finishing the reading of the Torah, the arguments--typical Jewish arguments--reached a crescendo. In one corner, a fierce debate ensued about Israel's policies. In another corner, an item of religious law was being heatedly argued. Children were kvetching, older men were getting annoyed. Others were attempting to concentrate on their prayers with closed eyes and open hearts.

Then came time for yizkor. More than half the people in the synagogue left. The sacred Torah scroll was brought to the center of the room. One of the worshippers made sure all that all who had to leave left and that the door was solidly shut so no one could enter. He then gave a knock on the table to signify that the yizkor service would now begin.

Suddenly, an eerie silence filled the room. A vibrant space, just moments ago pulsating with social zest and heated debate, was transformed. A sense of mystery, awe and dormant pain surfaced. You could cut the rawness of the emotions with a knife. Something profoundly authentic united all those standing in the room.

My heart shifted to my late father, whom I loved and adored so deeply. My flow of tears found solace in the knowledge that his was a life well lived. My dad was a man who utilized his journalistic wisdom and skills to become a voice for causes others left behind; he was a man of conviction, and a truly original personality, one hell of a guy. I recalled my father's last hours and the dignity with which he departed on his final journey. And I wept for my children who would not have the privilege to know the unique grandfather they had.

I lifted my eyes and gazed around at the people in the room. Near me stood a young man, my age, who lost his mother at the tender age of 5. Life without yizkor was inconceivable to him. Near him, stood others who lost parents in their teens or in college and needed to struggle to fill the unfillable void. Then there were the older men, in their 70s and 80s, whose parents perished more than six decades earlier in Stalin's gulag or Hitler's crematoriums. They are in a class of their own. Then, of course, there were the majority of middle-aged worshippers who at some point in their lives were forced to confront the reality of loss.

A strange oneness pervaded all of us standing in that room during yizkor. The connection did not need to be articulated in words; you could see it when you peered into the eyes of the person standing near you. It took me some time till I put my finger on what that connection consisted of: A piece of each of us was not to be found any longer in this world. An integral part of each of our hearts was elsewhere.

I understood why for 33 years I was asked to leave the synagogue during yizkor. Life for those who stay behind in the synagogue has a very different meaning, one that cannot be shared by those who have not seen the earth close up on a loved one.

This Yom Kippur I will again stand in the synagogue during yizkor. I will think of my Dad, which will make me both laugh and cry at the same time. I will ask him to look out for me and my family. And I will pray that I merit to internalize my beloved father's zest for life and for truth.

The following verses from Psalms & elsewhere are not really part of the Yizkor Service, but they are used as an appropriate introduction in many congregations, because their theme is the triumph of Man, through faith in Hashem, over his own mortality and the inevitability of death.

G-d, What is Man:

“Ado-nai, mah Adam vatayda-ayhu, ben enosh vat’chash’vayhu?
Adam la-hevel damah, yamav k’tzayl ovayr.
Baboker yatzitz v’chalaf, la-erev y’molayl v’yavaysh.

"G-d, what is Man that You recognize him? The son of a frail human, that you reckon with him?

Man is like a breath, his days are like a fleeting shadow. In the morning it blossoms and is rejuvenated, by evening it is cut down and brittle.

According to the count of our days, so may You teach us; then we shall acquire a heart of wisdom.

Safeguard the perfect and watch the upright, for the destiny of that man is peace.

But G-d will redeem my soul from the grip of the lower world, for He will take me, Selah!

My flesh and my heart yearn - Rock of my heart, and my portion is G-d, forever.

Then the dust returns to the ground, as it was, and the spirit returns to G-d Who gave it

Who sits in the refuge of the Most High, he shall dwell in the shadow of the Almighty. I will say of G-d, 'He is my refuge and my fortress, my G-d, I will trust in Him.' For He will deliver you from the ensnaring trap, from devastating pestilence. With His pinion He will cover you, and beneath His wings you will be protected; shield and armor is His truth. You shall not fear the terror of night: nor the arrow that flies by day; nor the pestilence that walks in gloom; nor the destroyer who lays waste at noon. Let a thousand encamp at your side and a myriad at your right hand, but to you they shall not approach. You will merely peer with your eyes, and you will see the retribution of the wicked. Because [you said,] 'You, G-d, are my refuge,' you have made the Most High your dwelling place. No evil shall befall you, nor will any plague come near your tent. He will charge His angels for you, to protect you in all your ways. On their palms they will carry you, lest you strike a foot against a stone. Upon the lion and the viper you will tread; you will trample the young lion and the serpent. For he has yearned for Me and I will deliver him; I will elevate him because he knows My Name. He will call upon Me and I will answer him, I am with him in distress, I will release him and I will honor him. With long life will I satisfy him, and I will show him My salvation.

For All: English Translation

May the L-rd remember the soul of (name of the deceased) who has gone on to his/her world, because, without making a vow, I shall give to charity on her behalf. As reward for this, may his/her soul be bound in the Bond of Life, together with the souls of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob; Sarah, Rebecca, Rachel, and Leah; and together with the other righteous men and women in the Garden of Eden. Now let us respond: Amen.

For Martyrs: English Translation

May the L-rd remember the souls of the holy and pure ones who were killed, murdered, slaughtered, burned, drowned, and strangled for the sanctification of the Name, because, without making a vow, I shall give to charity on their behalf. As reward for this, may their souls be bound in the Bond of Life, together with the souls of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob; Sarah, Rebecca, Rachel, and Leah; and together with the other righteous men and women in the Garden of Eden. Now let us respond: Amen

"E-l Malei Rachamim"* א-ל מלא רחמים

is a memorial prayer that has been taken to heart by all Jews. Its ubiquitous appeal and profound emotional effect has caused it to be chanted at funerals and consecrations, at every visitation to the cemetery, and in the synagogue on Sabbaths before yahrzeits, and at yizkor services. This prayer may be recited in English without any loss of religious significance.

It is permitted to mention many names in this prayer, but it is preferable to recite separate prayers for men and women.

O G-d, full of mercy, Who dwells on high, grant proper rest on the wings of the Divine Presence - in the lofty levels of the holy and the pure ones, who shine like the glow of the firmament - for the soul of (...) who has gone on to his/her world, because, without making a vow, I will contribute to charity in remembrance of his/her soul. May his/her resting place be in the Garden of Eden -therefore may the Master of Mercy shelter him/her in the shelter of His wings for Eternity, and may He bind his soul in the Bond of Life. G-d is his/her heritage, and may s/he repose in peace on his resting place. Now let us respond: Amen.

For Martyrs (of the Holocaust and those who gave their lives in defense of Israel)

O G-d, full of mercy, Who dwells on high, grant proper rest on the wings of the Divine Presence - in the lofty levels of the holy and the pure ones, who shine like the glow of the firmament - for the souls of the holy and pure ones who were killed, murdered, slaughtered, burned, drowned, and strangled for the Sanctification of the Name, because, without making a vow, I will contribute to charity in remembrance of their souls. May their resting place be in the Garden of Eden -therefore may the Master of Mercy shelter them in the shelter of His wings for Eternity; and may He bind their souls in the Bond of Life. Hashem is their heritage, and may they repose in peace on their resting place. Now let us respond: Amen.

Av Harachamim (אב הרחמים “Father [of] mercy”) is a memorial prayer for the souls of all the Jewish martyrs throughout history who sacrificed their lives for the sanctification of G-d’s name.

In this passage we make reference to verses in Tanach where G-d promises to avenge the blood of those killed. It is believed to have been first instituted in Germany after the terrible massacres and destruction of Jewish communities in the Rhineland regions and other parts of Europe by the Crusaders during the first and second crusades (1096 and 1146). It first appeared in prayerbooks in 1290, it is printed in every Orthodox siddur and recited as part of the weekly Shabbat services except on ‘happy days’. The Yizkor service on Jewish holidays concludes with the Av Harachamim, which prays for the souls of all Jewish martyrs.

May the All-Merciful Father Who dwells in the supernal heights, in His profound compassion, remember with mercy the pious, the upright and the perfect ones, the holy communities who gave their lives for the sanctification of the Divine Name.

They were beloved and pleasant in their lives, and [even] in their death were not parted [from Him]; they were swifter than eagles, stronger than lions to carry out the will of their Maker and the desire of their Creator.

May our G-d remember them with favor together with the other righteous of the world, and avenge the spilled blood of His servants, as it is written in the Torah of Moses, the man of G-d: O nations, sing the praises of His people, for He will avenge the blood of His servants, bring retribution upon His foes, and placate His land — His people.

And by Your servants the Prophets it is written as follows: I will cleanse [the nations of their wrongdoings,] but for the [shedding of Jewish] blood I will not cleanse them; the Lord dwells in Zion.

And in the Holy Writings it is said: Why should the nations say, “Where is their G-d?” Let there be known among the nations, before our eyes, the retribution of the spilled blood of Your servants. And it is said: For the Avenger of bloodshed is mindful of them; He does not forget the cry of the downtrodden. Further it is said: He will render judgment upon the nations, and they will be filled with corpses; He will crush heads over a vast area. He will drink from the stream on the way; therefore [Israel] will hold its head high.

"ИЗКОР"

"Изкор" — б поминальная молитва за умерших, читается перед б "Отца, Шпреисполненный К милосердия", б в восьмой день Песаха, во второй день Шавуот, в Йом-Ки- нур и В Шмини Ацерет.

Молящиеся, оба родителя которых живы, не участвуют в этой молитве. Они выходят из синагоги во время произнесения "Изкор" и возвращаются, когда община начинает "Ш", после "Изкор". Хотя следующие стихи не являются частью общепринятых молитв в память об умерших, в некото-рых общинах принято, что хазан и община поочередно читают эти стихи.

ГОСПОДЬ, В ЧЕМ ДОСТОИНСТВА ЧЕЛОВЕКА, ЗА КОТОРЫЕ ТЫ ИЗБРАЛ ЕГО, ЧЕМ ВАЖЕН. ДЛЯ ТЕБЯ СЫН ЧЕЛОВЕЧЕСКИЙ? ЧЕЛОВЕК ШИСЧЕЗНЕТ БЕССЛЕДНОК ПОДОБНО ДЫХА- НИЮ; ДНИ ЕГО б КАК ТЕНЬ ПРЕХОДЯЩАЯ.

ШПОДОБЕН ОН ТРАВЕ, КОТОРАЯК УТРОМ ВЫРАСТАЕТ СВЕЖА, А К ВЕЧЕРУ ЧАХНЕТ И ЗАСЫ- ХАЕТ.

НАУЧИ НАС ВЕСТИ СЧЕТ НАШИМ ДНЯМ И НАДЕЛИ НАШЕ СЕРДЦЕ УДРОСТЬЮ. СЛЕДУЙ ЗА ЧИСТОСЕРДЕЧНЫМИ ШЛЮДЬМИК, БЕРИ ПРИМЕР С ПРЯМОДУШНЫХ, ИБО ШЛУЧ-ШЕЕК БУДУЩЕЕ - У ЧЕЛОВЕКА ЦЕЛЬНОГО ШДУШОЮК. ТОЛЬКО БОГ ИЗБАВИТ ДУШУ МОЮ ОТ ПРЕИСПОДНЕЙ, ИБО ВОЗЬМЕТ МЕНЯ К СЕБЕ!5 ШИС-ТОМИЛОСЬК ТЕЛО МОЕ, ИЗНЕМОГАЕТ ДУША МОЯ, ОПЛОТ СЕРДЦА МОЕГО И УДЕЛ МОЙ б БОГб НА ВЕКА. И ШТЕЛОК б ПРАХ б ВЕРНЕТСЯ В ЗЕМЛЮ, ИЗ КОТОРОЙ ОНО БЫЛО ШСОЗДАНОК, А ДУША ВЕРНЕТСЯ К БОГУ, КОТОРЫЙ ДАЛ ЕЕ ШЧЕЛОВЕКУК.⁷

Псалом 91

ТОТ, КТО ПОСВЯЩЕН В ВЫСШУЮ ТАЙНУ, ПОСТОЯННО БУДЕТ ПРЕБЫВАТЬ ПОД СЕНЬЮ ВСЕМОГУЩЕГО. СКАЖИ ГОСПОДУ: "ЗАЩИТА МОЯ И ОПЛОТ МОЙ, БОГ МОЙ, НА ТЕБЯ БУДУ НАДЕЯТЬСЯ!" ИБО ОН СПАСЕТ ТЕБЯ ОТ СЕТЕЙ ЛОВЦА, ОТ ГУБИТЕЛЬНОГО МОРА, КРЫ- ЛОМ СВОИМ ПРИКРОЕТ ОН ТЕБЯ, ПОД СЕНЬЮ КРЫЛ ЕГО НАЙДЕШЬ ТЫ УБЕЖИЩЕ, ЩИТОМ И КОЛЬЧУГОЙ БУДЕТ ДЛЯ ТЕБЯ ЕГО ИСТИНА. НЕ УБОИШЬСЯ НИ СТРАХОВ НОЧНЫХ, НИ СРЕЛЫ, ЛЕТЯЩЕЙ ДНЕМ, НИ МОРА, КРАДУЩЕГОСЯ ВО ТЬМЕ, НИ СМЕРТИ, СВИРЕПСТВУЮЩЕЙ В ПОЛ- ДЕНЬ. ПАДЕТ ШСЛЕВАК ОТ ТЕБЯ ТЫСЯЧА И ДЕСЯТЬ ТЫСЯЧ б СПРАВА, А ТЫ ОСТАНЕШЬСЯ НЕ-ВРЕДИМ; ЛИШЬ ГЛАЗАМИ СВОИМИ УВИДИШЬ ТЫ, КАК ПОСТИГНЕТ ЗЛОДЕЕВ КАРА, ИБО ШГО-ВОРИЛК ТЫ: "ГОСПОДЬ б ЗАЩИТА МОЯ". ВСЕВЫШНЕГО ИЗБРАЛ ТЫ ПРИБЕЖИЩЕМ СВОИМ. НЕ СЛУЧИТСЯ С ТОБОЙ НЕСЧАСТЬЯ, И БЕДА НЕ РИБЛИЗИТСЯ К ШАТРУ ТВОЕМУ, ИБО АНГЕЛАМ СВОИМ ПРИКАЖЕТ ОН ОХРАНЯТЬ ТЕБЯ НА ВСЕХ ТВОИХ ПУТЯХ. НА РУКАХ ОНИ БУДУТ НО-СИТЬ ТЕБЯ, ЧТОБЫ НЕ СПОТКНУЛАСЬ О КАМЕНЬ ТВОЯ НОГА. ЛЬВА И ЗМЕЯ ПОПИРАТЬ СТА- НЕШЬ, РАСТОПЧЕШЬ МОЛОДОГО ЛЬВА И ДРАКОНА. ШСКАЗАЛ ВСЕВЫШНИЙК: "ЗА ТО, ЧТО Н СТРЕМИТСЯ КО МНЕ, Я СПАСУ ЕГО; Я ВОЗНЕСУ ЕГО ЗА ТО, ЧТО ОН ЗНАЕТ ИМЯ МОЕ. ВОЗЗОВЕТ ОН КО МНЕ б И Я ОТВЕЧУ ЕМУ. С НИМ Я В БЕДЕ ЕГО; Я СПАСУ ЕГО ПРОСЛАВЛЮ. ДАМ НАСЫ- ТИТЬСЯ ЕМУ ДОЛГОЛЕТИЕМ И ЯВЛЮ ЕМУ СВОЕ СПАСЕНИЕ".

О, БОЖЕ, ПРЕИСПОЛНЕННЫЙ МИЛОСЕРДИЯ, ОБИТАЮЩИЙ В ЗАОБЛАЧНЫХ ВЫСЯХ! ПУСТЬ ВОЗНЕСУТСЯ НА КРЫЛЬЯХ ШХИНЫ, В ПОЛНОЙ БЕЗМЯТЕЖНОСТИ, К НЕБЕСНЫМ ВЫСОТАМ, ГДЕ ОБИТАЮТ СВЯТЫЕ И ЧИСТЫЕ, СИЯЮЩИЕ КАК СВЕТ ЛАЗУРИ, ШИ УПОКОЮТСЯК ДУШИ (ВСЕХ МОИХ РОДСТВЕННИКОВ И РОДСТВЕННИЦ КАК СО СТОРОНЫ ОТЦА, ТАК И СО СТОРОНЫ МАТЕРИ), ШЛЮДЕЙК СВЯТЫХ И ЧИСТЫХ, КОТОРЫЕ БЫЛИ УМЕРЩВЛЕННЫ. ЖЕСТОКО УБИТЫ, ЗАРЕЗАНЫ, СОЖЖЕНЫ, УТОПЛЕННЫ, ЗАДУШЕНЫ, ОСВЯЩАЯ ИМЯ ШВСЕВЫШНЕГОК, НЕМЕЦКИМИ НАЦИСТАМИ; ДА НЕ ОСТАНЕТСЯ ОТ НИХ СЛЕДА НИ НА НЕБЕ НИ НА ЗЕМЛЕ. ПОСКОЛЬКУ Я, НЕ СВЯЗЫВАЯ СЕБЯ ОБЕТОМ, ДАМ ПОЖЕРТВОВАНИЕ В ПАМЯТЬ ОБ ИХ ДУШАХ, ДАБЫ ОНИ ОБРЕЛИ ПОКОЙ В РАЮ, ПОСТОЛЬКУ МИЛОСЕРДНЫЙ НАВЕКИ ВОЗЬМЕТ ИХ ПОД СВОЕ ПОКРОВИТЕЛЬСТВО, И ДУШИ ИХ БУДУТ ПРЕБЫВАТЬ В ОБИТЕЛИ ВЕЧНОЙ ЖИЗНИ И ОБРЕТУТ УСПОКОЕНИЕ В ГОСПОДЕ. ДА ПОКОЮТСЯ ОНИ С МИРОМ НА СВОЕМ ЛОЖЕ И СКАЖЕМ: АМЕН!

In Memory of Our Beloved, money has been pledged to Give Charity in their Merit.
