

Yom Kippur Games

Avinu Malkeinu Live

Sing Avinu Malkeinu as if you were performing on stage

Slipper Mixup

Sit down in a circle, and put all of the slippers in the middle. Everyone needs to close their eyes, and find and put on their slippers without looking! (Add Mommy's slippers too to make it harder!)

Squishy Fish

Take a few pillows, and set them up into a tunnel. Crawl through the tunnel and pretend it's Yonah's fish!

Tekiyah GEDOLAH!

On the count of 3 (use your fingers), everyone needs to pretend to blow a Tekiah Gedolah (with their hands). Longest one wins! Repeat.

Forgiven!

Designate a closet or other room as the "Kodesh Hakodoshim." One child can pretend to go inside like the Kohen Gadol, and ask Hashem to forgive us. When he comes out, the other kids pelt him/her with dish towels, cloth napkins, or socks (like a chosson or kallah). Yay! Hashem forgave us!

Kohanim Count

Do the "pius" count like the Kohanim: Pick a number (or an Uno card), then all of the kids put out one or two fingers. Begin counting fingers around the circle until you have a winning "kohen"!

One for Hashem, One for Azazel

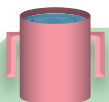

Teach kids "One for Hashem, and one for Azazel" game (similar to "The Wonder Ball." Sing song, while passing around object - stuffed animal very good for this... the one holding the object at the end "wins").

Words: "On Yom Kippur, what befell? A korban given, I will tell. One was picked, and it was swell - the other was for Azazel. One. For. Hashem. One. For. Azazel."

Slipper Tiptoe

Have all kids leave the room, and you close your eyes. They tiptoe in in their slippers one by one and you need to guess who came in.

Negel Vasser Practice

Using empty cups, practice pretending to pour water only until the knuckles.

Where's the Machzor?

Hide a machzor in the room while they are out of the room, they come in and need to find it.

Yom Kippur Bananas

Teach them "peel banana" cheer: "Pick bananas, pick, pick bananas. Said a pick bananas, pick, pick bananas. Peel bananas, peel, peel bananas! Said a Peel, bananas, peel, peel bananas. Go, bananas! Go, go, bananas! Said a go, bananas, go go bananas! Peel to the left, peel to the right, IT'S YOM KIPPUR SO DON'T TAKE A BITE!"

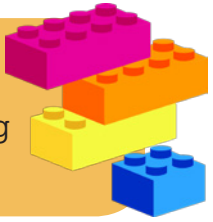

Slipper Races

Put slippers on your hands, crawl to the other end of the room, put on a "tallis" (blanket, towel, etc.) and crawl back.

Yom Kippur Avodah

Build a Bais Hamikdash using blocks or other items

Duck Duck Goose

Try with different words:
Yom, Yom, Yom, Yom KIPPUR!

I Forgive YOU!

Have kids sit in circle. The one in middle closes eyes, points in front, turns around and says "I forgive (NAME)!" If he/she is pointing to the right person, that one needs to stand in the middle.

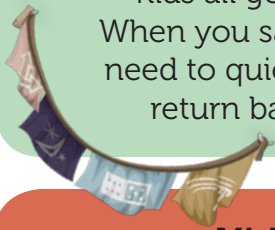

Teshuva Game

Teshuvah means returning to Hashem. Each kid gets one article of (dirty!) clothing as "theirs." The clothes are arranged on the floor around the room, with some distance in between, but not too much! Kids will need to go around the room only stepping on these items, not touching the floor.

Kids all go around the room.

When you say "TESHUVAH!" they need to quickly jump, run etc. to return back to "their" spot.

Exercise!

Reach OUT like you're trying to give somebody a hand
Reach DOWN like you're trying to help a baby stand
Reach UP like you're bringing down brachos anew
BIG HUG! Because you love every single Jew!

Jump UP 'cuz you're excited -
Moshiach's here, ma'am!
Now CROUCH like a lion lying down with a lamb.
Stand TALL because you're proud that you are one of them—
Soldiers, ATTENTION in the army of Hashem!

Kids Minyan

Kids take turns being chazzan. Chazan gets to stand by shtender (chair), wearing kittel (Tatty's old shirt) and everyone needs to copy him/her

The Red String

Kids dip pasta into ketchup, to make it red like the string hung up outside of the Kodosh Hakodoshim.

Lick off the ketchup to turn the pasta white! Hashem forgives us!

Teshuva/Tefillah/Tzedakah

Kids stand by wall. If I say TESHUVA! they need to run to me. If I say TEFILLAH they need to stand by the wall and pretend to daven. If I say TZEDAKAH! They need to pretend to give tzedakah.
