

Tu B'Shevat Carnival

By Rabbi Ilan Meyers

Grade Level: Early Childhood, Elementary, Middle School, High School

Description:

Booth ideas for a Tu B'Shevat fair with a Shivas Haminim theme. Seven relatively simple and inexpensive booth ideas are provided, one for each of the shivas haminim. A memorable and educational way to provide students with a taste (or experience) of each of the Shivas Haminim while reviewing their names.

Goals/Objectives:

Students will be able to identify each of the shivas haminim. They will enjoy this extracurricular program in honor of Tu B'Shevat.

Materials Needed:

- Carnival booths (tables, desks, etc.)
- Plastic spoons
- Marshmallow fluff
- Barley
- Baskets containing mezonos snacks
- Laminated picture of wheat
- Bag filled with many objects
- Fig
- Various types of grape juice (Concord, Blush, White)
- Disposable cups
- Large olive tree drawing (hung on a wall)
- Olives
- Pomegranates
- Straws
- Disposable plates
- Date
- Masking tape
- Tickets
- Large fruit basket

Instructions:

1. Hang all booth instructions (included on the enclosed posters - sized for 11x17 paper) by each booth/table.
2. Tickets earned can be used to raffle off a fruit basket for winning student to bring home and share with family and friends.
